DETAILED ACTION

This Office action is in response to the Appeal Brief filed October 8, 2004.

Applicant's arguments are persuasive and the prior art rejections are withdrawn. It should be noted that there is a discrepancy with respect to which claims are now pending. In the amendment filed April 22, 2002, applicant added claims 10-13. A Claim 10 was already present in the application as an original claim. Therefore, it is not clear which claims remain in the application and what limitation of presented in these claims. It is suggested that Applicant cancel all claims and begin a new set of claims beginning with claim 15. Please indicate that claims 1-14 are canceled.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1, 4, 9, 11, 12, and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 and its dependents are rejected because the claim contains two different proportions for the antiwear additive.

Claim 4 is rejected because it is a dependent of a canceled claim.

Claim 9 is rejected because it is a dependent of a claim that is of a different statutory invention.

Claim 14 is rejected because it is a dependent of claim 9 which is rejected for the reason above.

3. Claims 6 and 13 are allowable for the reasons set forth in applicant's arguments presented in the Appeal Brief of October 8, 2004.
